

Tai Po Government Secondary School
2003-2004 Reading Program
Principal/Teachers/Parents' Recommendation

Name: WONG MAN KEUNG

| Book | Author | Publisher | Date of Publication | Pages |
|-------------------------|--------------|---------------------------|---------------------|-------|
| Stones from Shakespeare | Anne Collins | Pearson Education Limited | 2000 | 52 |

Place of Publication : England

Place to borrow/purchase : Hong Kong Book Centre

Appropriate Reading Stages : Junior Senior Whole School

Types/Nature : Art Appreciation Specific areas (e.g. History, Economic, Philosophy etc)

Social Current Issues Personal and Moral Development

General Science Others : _____

Presentation : Single Edition a Series Illustrations Comics

The reason(s) of recommendation and the merit(s) of the book :

These stories are based on some of Shakespeare's most famous plays. Through reading these stories, we can travel to different places and meet different people.

We meet a greedy moneylender in Venice, a fairy king and queen in Greece, a young prince of Denmark and Julius Caesar, the great emperor of Rome.

Though some stories are from serious play of Shakespeare, the stories are in simplified tents and provide a step-by-step approach to the joys of reading for pleasure.

The stories are easy read and interesting.

In addition, this books has an introduction and even has an extensive activity material at the end of each story.

Teacher's signature : WONG MAN KEUNG

Date : 2-10-2003